

Is HOMOSEXUAL ACTIVITY SINFUL?

A response to those who promote it

GOD'S WORD DOES SHOW

1. Wherever the Bible deals with homosexual relations, they are only condemned (Lv. 18:22; 20:13; Rm. 1:26,27, etc.) and arguments to the contrary are exposed as false by sound exegesis. (See site at end for more info.)
2. Nowhere is there homoeroticism in holy, strong male friendships in the Bible – despite attempts by some to force sex into passages it does not belong in.
3. It is also a sin to engage in sexual relations outside of marriage, and which sanctified union God never provided for homosexuals, therefore making all homosexual activity fornication, which, like all sin, is punishable in Hell.
4. The ultimate physical sin of Sodom was that of rampant "fornication, and going after strange [as in other than lawful] flesh," and thus it is "set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire" (Jude v.7; cf. Gen. 19).

Is HOMOSEXUAL ACTIVITY SINFUL?

A response to those who promote it

GOD'S WORD DOES SHOW.

1. Wherever the Bible deals with homosexual relations, they are only condemned (Lv. 18:22; 20:13; Rm. 1:26,27, etc.) and arguments to the contrary are exposed as false by sound exegesis. (See site at end for more info.)
2. Nowhere is there homoeroticism in holy, strong male friendships in the Bible – despite attempts by some to force sex into passages it does not belong in.
3. It is also a sin to engage in sexual relations outside of marriage, and which sanctified union God never provided for homosexuals, therefore making all homosexual activity fornication, which, like all sin, is punishable in Hell.
4. The ultimate physical sin of Sodom was that of rampant "fornication, and going after strange [as in other than lawful] flesh," and thus it is "set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire" (Jude v.7; cf. Gen. 19).

Is HOMOSEXUAL ACTIVITY SINFUL?

A response to those who promote it

GOD'S WORD DOES SHOW.

1. Wherever the Bible deals with homosexual relations, they are only condemned (Lv. 18:22; 20:13; Rm. 1:26,27, etc.) and arguments to the contrary are exposed as false by sound exegesis. (See site at end for more info.)
2. Nowhere is there homoeroticism in holy, strong male friendships in the Bible – despite attempts by some to force sex into passages it does not belong in.
3. It is also a sin to engage in sexual relations outside of marriage, and which sanctified union God never provided for homosexuals, therefore making all homosexual activity fornication, which, like all sin, is punishable in Hell.
4. The ultimate physical sin of Sodom was that of rampant "fornication, and going after strange [as in other than lawful] flesh," and thus it is "set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire" (Jude v.7; cf. Gen. 19).

Is HOMOSEXUAL ACTIVITY SINFUL?

A response to those who promote it

GOD'S WORD DOES SHOW.

1. Homosexual relations are condemned wherever the Bible deals with them, (Lv. 18:22; 20:13; Rm. 1:26,27, etc.) and arguments to the contrary are exposed as false by sound exegesis. (See site at end for more info.)
2. Nowhere is there homoeroticism in holy, strong male friendships in the Bible – despite attempts by some to force sex into passages it does not belong in.
3. It is also a sin to engage in sexual relations outside of marriage, and which sanctified union God never provided for homosexuals, therefore making all homosexual activity fornication, which, like all sin, is punishable in Hell.
4. The ultimate physical sin of Sodom was that of rampant "fornication, and going after strange [as in other than lawful] flesh," and thus it is "set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire" (Jude v.7; cf. Gen. 19).

Is HOMOSEXUAL ACTIVITY SINFUL?

A response to those who promote it

GOD'S WORD DOES SHOW.

1. Homosexual relations are condemned wherever the Bible deals with them, (Lv. 18:22; 20:13; Rm. 1:26,27, etc.) and arguments to the contrary are exposed as false by sound exegesis. (See site at end for more info.)
2. Nowhere is there homoeroticism in holy, strong male friendships in the Bible – despite attempts by some to force sex into passages it does not belong in.
3. It is also a sin to engage in sexual relations outside of marriage, and which sanctified union God never provided for homosexuals, therefore making all homosexual activity fornication, which, like all sin, is punishable in Hell.
4. The ultimate physical sin of Sodom was that of rampant "fornication, and going after strange [as in other than lawful] flesh," and thus it is "set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire" (Jude v.7; cf. Gen. 19).

Is HOMOSEXUAL ACTIVITY SINFUL?

A response to those who promote it

GOD'S WORD DOES SHOW.

1. Homosexual relations are condemned wherever the Bible deals with them, (Lv. 18:22; 20:13; Rm. 1:26,27, etc.) and arguments to the contrary are exposed as false by sound exegesis. (See site at end for more info.)
2. Nowhere is there homoeroticism in holy, strong male friendships in the Bible – despite attempts by some to force sex into passages it does not belong in.
3. It is also a sin to engage in sexual relations outside of marriage, and which sanctified union God never provided for homosexuals, therefore making all homosexual activity fornication, which, like all sin, is punishable in Hell.
4. The ultimate physical sin of Sodom was that of rampant "fornication, and going after strange [as in other than lawful] flesh," and thus it is "set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire" (Jude v.7; cf. Gen. 19).

5. Rather than addressing every single sin specifically in His time on earth, the Lord Jesus broadly condemned such things as “fornications” (Mk. 7:21), which Biblically includes homosexual relations. Jesus also assured the apostles that He had many more things to say to them by His forth-coming Holy Spirit (Jn. 12:7-15). Thus we have the rest of the New Testament in which homosexual relations are clearly condemned (Rom. 1:22-27; 1Cor. 6:9; 1Tim. 1:10; Jude v.7).

6. Jesus explicitly affirmed that the unique union of the male and the female is the “what” of what God joined together, after making manifesting no other creature would do. (Gn. 1:26,27; 2:18-24; Mt. 19:4)

7. God calls both heterosexuals and homosexuals to truly want the Biblical Lord Jesus over their sins – which things we tend to do because we are all born with a sinful nature – and to ask Jesus who died for our sins and rose again to save us, so that we can be forgiven and empowered to live for Him! Only Jesus can set you free to serve!

8. This decision is shown by being baptized under water in identification with Jesus, and then following Him (despite persecutions)!

See www.peacebyjesus.com for more

5. Rather than addressing every single sin specifically in His time on earth, the Lord Jesus broadly condemned such things as “fornications” (Mk. 7:21), which Biblically includes homosexual relations. Jesus also assured the apostles that He had many more things to say to them by His forth-coming Holy Spirit (Jn. 12:7-15). Thus we have the rest of the New Testament in which homosexual relations are clearly condemned (Rom. 1:22-27; 1Cor. 6:9; 1Tim. 1:10; Jude v.7).

6. Jesus explicitly affirmed that the unique union of the male and the female is the “what” of what God joined together, after making manifesting no other creature would do. (Gn. 1:26,27; 2:18-24; Mt. 19:4)

7. God calls both heterosexuals and homosexuals to truly want the Biblical Lord Jesus over their sins – which things we tend to do because we are all born with a sinful nature – and to ask Jesus who died for our sins and rose again to save us, so that we can be forgiven and empowered to live for Him! Only Jesus can set you free to serve!

8. This decision is shown by being baptized under water in identification with Jesus, and following Him (despite persecutions)!

See www.peacebyjesus.com for more

5. Rather than addressing every single sin specifically in His time on earth, the Lord Jesus broadly condemned such things as “fornications” (Mk. 7:21), which Biblically includes homosexual relations. Jesus also assured the apostles that He had many more things to say to them by His forth-coming Holy Spirit (Jn. 12:7-15). Thus we have the rest of the New Testament in which homosexual relations are clearly condemned (Rom. 1:22-27; 1Cor. 6:9; 1Tim. 1:10; Jude v.7).

6. Jesus explicitly affirmed that the unique union of the male and the female is the “what” of what God joined together, after making manifesting no other creature would do. (Gn. 1:26,27; 2:18-24; Mt. 19:4)

7. God calls both heterosexuals and homosexuals to truly want the Biblical Lord Jesus over their sins – which things we tend to do because we are all born with a sinful nature – and to ask Jesus who died for our sins and rose again to save us, so that we can be forgiven and empowered to live for Him! Only Jesus can set you free to serve!

8. This decision is shown by being baptized under water in identification with Jesus, and following Him (despite persecutions)!

See www.peacebyjesus.com for more

5. Rather than addressing every single sin specifically in His time on earth, the Lord Jesus broadly condemned such things as “fornications” (Mk. 7:21), which Biblically includes homosex. Jesus also assured the apostles that He had many more things to say to them by His forth-coming Holy Spirit (Jn. 12:7-15). Thus we have the rest of the New Testament in which homosexual relations are clearly condemned (Rom. 1:22-27; 1Cor. 6:9; 1Tim. 1:10; Jude v.7).

6. Jesus explicitly affirmed that the unique union of the male and the female is the “what” of what God joined together, after making manifesting no other creature would do. (Gn. 1:26,27; 2:18-24; Mt. 19:4)

7. Just like heterosexuals, God calls homosexuals to truly want the Biblical Lord Jesus over their sins – which things we tend to do because we are all born with a sinful nature – and to ask Him who died for our sins and rose again to save us, so that we can be forgiven and empowered to live for Him! Only Jesus can set you free to serve!

8. This decision is shown by being baptized under water in identification with Jesus, and following Him with a Bible believing church (despite persecutions)!

See www.peacebyjesus.com for more

5. Rather than addressing every single sin specifically in His time on earth, the Lord Jesus broadly condemned such things as “fornications” (Mk. 7:21), which Biblically includes homosex. Jesus also assured the apostles that He had many more things to say to them by His forth-coming Holy Spirit (Jn. 12:7-15). Thus we have the rest of the New Testament in which homosexual relations are clearly condemned (Rom. 1:22-27; 1Cor. 6:9; 1Tim. 1:10; Jude v.7).

6. Jesus explicitly affirmed that the unique union of the male and the female is the “what” of what God joined together, after making manifesting no other creature would do. (Gn. 1:26,27; 2:18-24; Mt. 19:4)

7. Just like heterosexuals, God calls homosexuals to truly want the Biblical Lord Jesus over their sins – which things we tend to do because we are all born with a sinful nature – and to ask Him who died for our sins and rose again to save us, so that we can be forgiven and empowered to live for Him! Only Jesus can set you free to serve!

8. This decision is shown by being baptized under water in identification with Jesus, and following Him with a Bible believing church (despite persecutions)!

See www.peacebyjesus.com for more

5. Rather than addressing every single sin specifically in His time on earth, the Lord Jesus broadly condemned such things as “fornications” (Mk. 7:21), which Biblically includes homosex. Jesus also assured the apostles that He had many more things to say to them by His forth-coming Holy Spirit (Jn. 12:7-15). Thus we have the rest of the New Testament in which homosexual relations are clearly condemned (Rom. 1:22-27; 1Cor. 6:9; 1Tim. 1:10; Jude v.7).

6. Jesus explicitly affirmed that the unique union of the male and the female is the “what” of what God joined together, after making manifesting no other creature would do. (Gn. 1:26,27; 2:18-24; Mt. 19:4)

7. Just like heterosexuals, God calls homosexuals to truly want the Biblical Lord Jesus over their sins – which things we tend to do because we are all born with a sinful nature – and to ask Him who died for our sins and rose again to save us, so that we can be forgiven and empowered to live for Him! Only Jesus can set you free to serve!

8. This decision is shown by being baptized under water in identification with Jesus, and following Him with a Bible believing church (despite persecutions)!

See www.peacebyjesus.com for more